Balloon deliveries

The fourth and fifth graders of Irving Elementary School observed January as friendship month. The students delivered balloons to community friends Monday. Former minister faces exposure charge

A former Lorimor and Murray minister is accused of indecent exposure.

Michael Findley Smith, 40, Rochester, N.Y., is charged with exposing his genitals to two juveniles then ages 11 and 13. According to two affidavits signed by Union County Sheriff John Coulter, Smith taught and participated in joint masturbation with the juveniles during May and June of 1988.

The alleged incidents, according to the affidavits, occurred at the residence of Smith and at the Methodist Church in Lorimor.

Des Moines attorney J. Michael Mayer, Smith's counsel, attempted to have the charges dismissed in a preliminary hearing at the Union County Courthouse Wednesday. Mayer said the state lacked enough evidence to continue the prosecution.

Magistrate Donald Clark determined enough evidence existed to continue the case.

Union County Attorney Tim Kenyon, who is prosecuting the case, said he would file trial information in the coming weeks.

Allan Kirkhart, a member of the Lorimor Methodist Church, said

Smith was the pastor of the Lorimor Methodist church from January of 1988 until February or March of 1989.

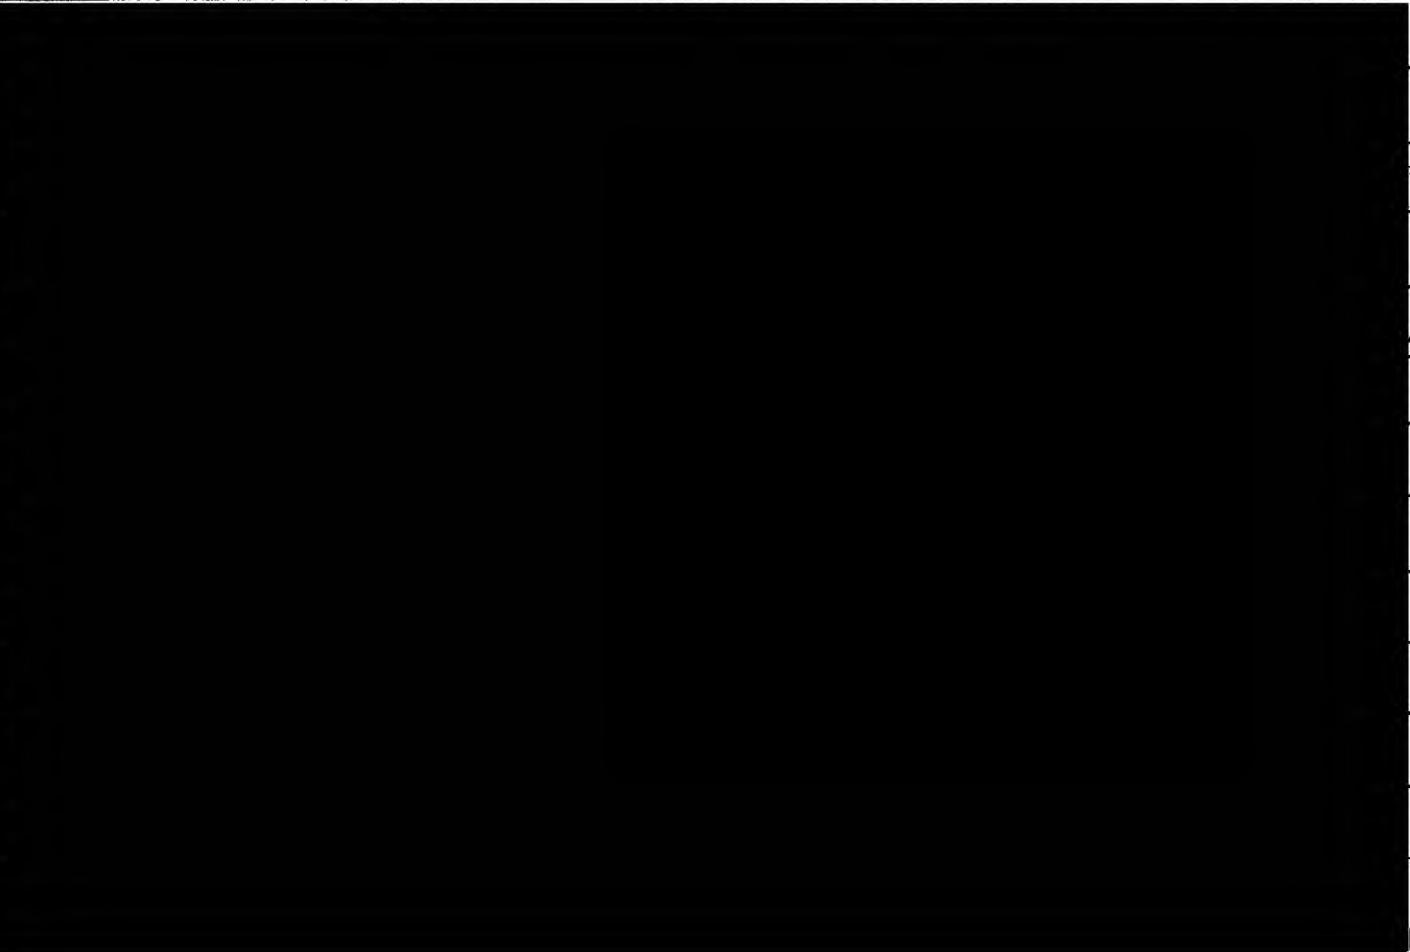

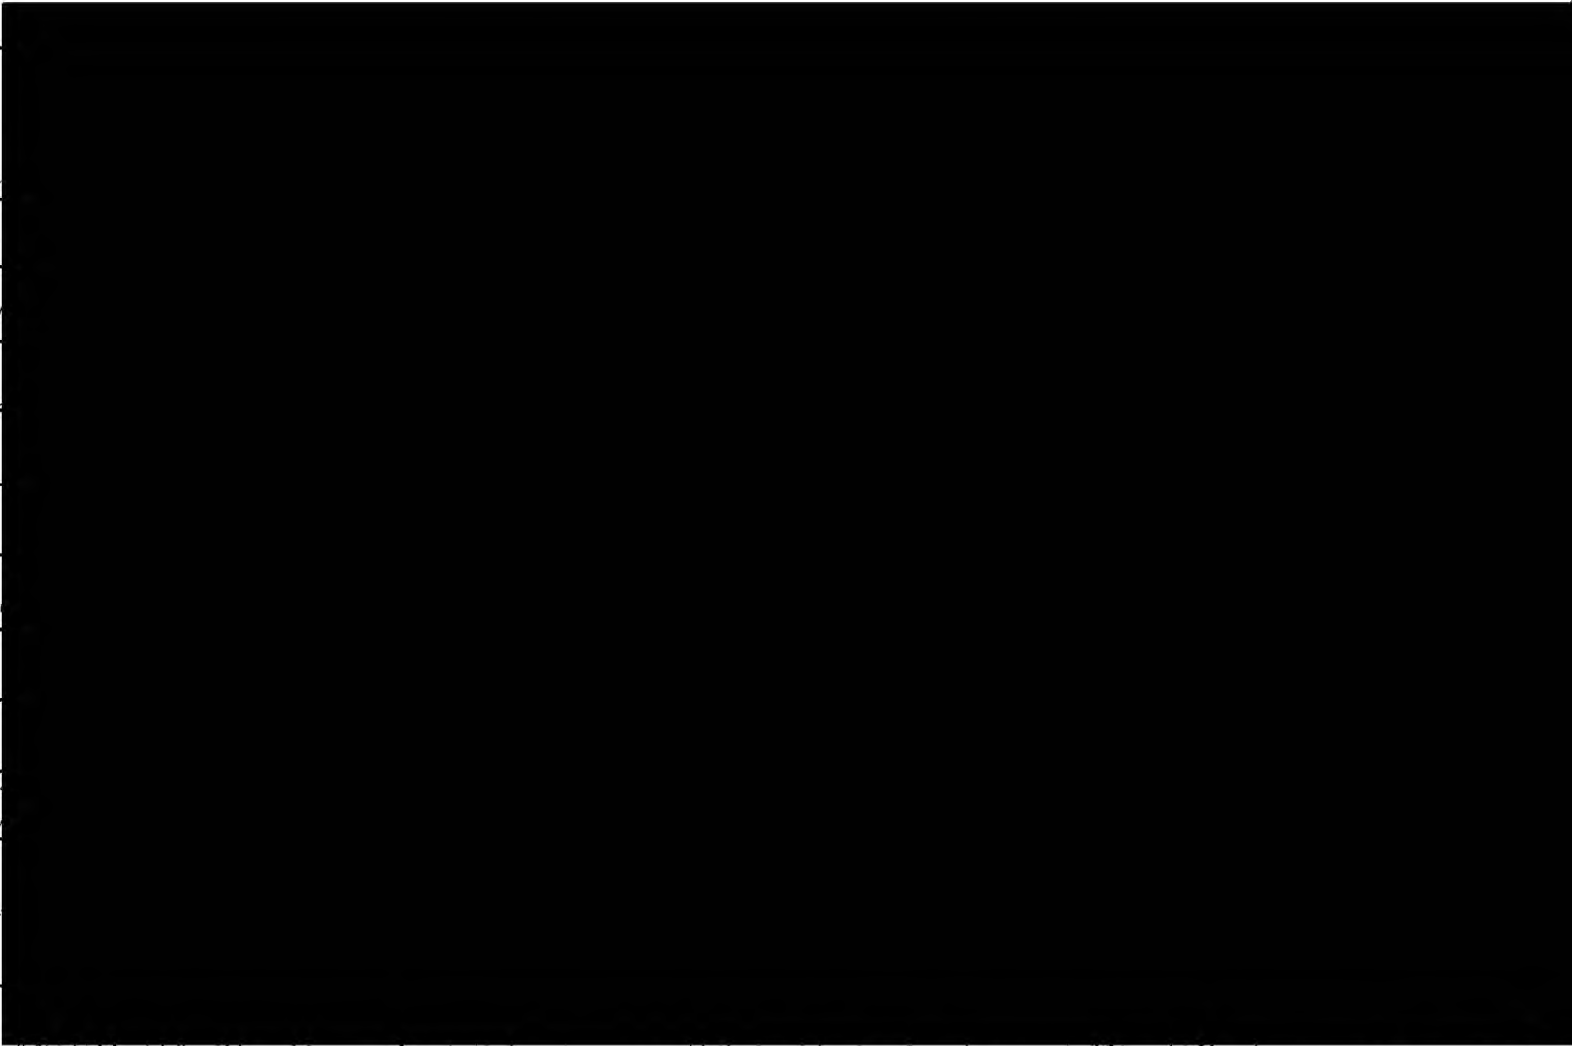

Coulter said Smith was the minister for both the Lorimor and Murray Methodist Churches. Coulter also said Smith had been a scout master for Lorimor and Murray scout organizations.

Union County issued a warrant for Smith's arrest Jan. 3. Smith was arrested in Des Moines by law officers and posted bond of $1,150 Jan. 16.
